

RENEW YOUR VOWS AT THE CROSSROADS OF THE WORLD ON VALENTINE'S DAY

Release Date: Jan 19, 2017

RENEW YOUR VOWS AT THE CROSSROADS OF THE WORLD ON VALENTINE'S DAY

On Valentine's Day, the Times Square Alliance will host a celebration of love and romance during a large vow renewal ceremony on the iconic Red Steps in Times Square on Tuesday, February 14th, at 6:00 PM. The ceremony is free and open to people of all ages, genders, religions, races and backgrounds.

As the lovebirds renew their vows, they will overlook the winner of this year's annual Times Square Valentine Heart Design Competition We Were Strangers Once Too by The Office for Creative Research – a public data sculpture highlighting the role that immigrants have played in the founding, development, and continued vibrancy of New York City. Data from the 2015 American Community Survey takes visual, sculptural form in 33 metal poles, inscribed and hued to represent the national origins and shifting populations of foreign-born NYC residents.
