LOVE WILL RADIATE FROM TIMES SQUARE ON VALENTINE'S DAY Two Weddings, Two Surprise Proposals, and a Vow Renewal on the Red Steps

(Times Square, N.Y. – February 1, 2023) On Valentine's Day, New Yorkers and visitors looking for romance in New York City will find it at the Crossroads of the World with Love in Times Square. Each year, lovers surprise their partners with marriage proposals under Times Square's iconic American Eagle screen; couples tie the knot on Duffy Square; and New Yorkers and visitors renew their vows on the Red Steps. These real life love stories will unfold in front of the winning ice sculpture from the third annual Winter Ice Sculpture Show happening on Governors Island on February 3rd presented by Times Square Arts and Governors Island Arts. Details about the winning sculpture will be released after the competition.

Love in Times Square will follow the below schedule on Valentine's Day:

- 11:00 am – Wedding #1
- 11:30 am – Surprise Proposal #1 on the American Eagle billboard
- 12:00 pm – Wedding #2
- 12:30 pm – Surprise Proposal #2 on the American Eagle billboard
- 6:00 pm – Vow Renewal on the Red Steps (Registration: TSQ.org/Vows)

More details about the weddings:

- At 11:00 am the first couple will get hitched right in the heart of Times Square. In 2021, on her 60th birthday, he proposed after the journey of their relationship has included Times Square as their date location multiple times. Now, Times Square will be their wedding venue.
- At 12:00 pm a second couple will formalize their union. Times Square has been an important part of their journey to love – this couple met in Times Square, he first asked her to be his girlfriend in Times Square, and now they will be married in the heart of Times Square on Valentine's Day.

More details about the proposals:

- At 11:30 am and 12:30 pm, a diverse set of lucky lovers, will be surprised with a Valentine's Day gift that they – and everyone else in Times Square – won't see coming and won't soon forget: a surprise marriage proposal will appear on Times Square's iconic American Eagle billboard.

Details about the couples will be available onsite at the event and they will be available for interviews after their big moment. Please reach out to TJ Witham at tjwitham@tsq.org for any specific requests.

- Beginning at 6:00 pm, a celebration of love and commitment will take place outside on the iconic Red Steps in Times Square. The ceremony is free and open to people of all ages, genders, religions, races, and backgrounds and will include a live performance from a member of the cast of Broadway's The Notebook. Those interested in attending can register here: TSq.org/Vows.

All of the festivities will overlook and engage with the winning ice sculpture from the third annual Winter Ice Sculpture Show taking place on February 3rd on Governors Island. The jury panel selecting the winning sculpture to be featured in Times Square for Valentine's Day and beyond includes creative agent at-large and cast member of Bravo's The Real Housewives of New York City Jenna Lyons, writer and editor Miya Lee, New York City Council Member Chi Ossé, and Hollis Kam, Senior Vice President of People and Culture at Times Square Alliance and decade-long ordained wedding officiant for Love in Times Square.

Footage and images of the Valentine's Day Love in Times Square events will be available upon request after the event.

ABOUT TIMES SQUARE ALLIANCE

The Times Square Alliance works to improve and promote Times Square - cultivating the creativity, energy and edge that have made the area an icon of entertainment, culture and urban life for over a century. Founded in 1992, the Alliance keeps the neighborhood clean and safe, promotes local businesses, manages area improvements and produces major annual events with partners including New Year's Eve, Solstice in Times Square and Taste of Times Square. As the custodians of Times Square, the Alliance works every day to improve the quality of life for the neighborhood residents and businesses while driving economic growth in New York City. ABOUT TIMES SQUARE ARTS

Times Square Arts, the public art program of the Times Square Alliance, collaborates with contemporary artists and cultural institutions to experiment and engage with one of the world's most iconic urban places. Through the Square's electronic billboards, public plazas, vacant areas and popular venues, and the Alliance's own online landscape, Times Square Arts invites leading contemporary creators, such as Mel Chin, Tracey Emin, Jeffrey Gibson, Ryan McGinley, Yoko Ono, and Kehinde Wiley, to help the public see Times Square in new ways. Times Square has always been a place of risk, innovation and creativity, and the Arts Program ensures these qualities remain central to the district's unique identity. ABOUT GOVERNORS ISLAND ARTS

Governors Island Arts, the public arts and cultural program presented by the Trust for Governors Island, creates transformative encounters with art for all New Yorkers, inviting artists and researchers to engage with the issues of our time in the context of the Island's layered histories, environments, and architecture. Governors Island Arts achieves this mission through temporary and long-term public art commissions, an annual Organization in Residence program in the Island's historic houses, and free public programs and events in partnership with a wide range of cross-disciplinary NYC cultural organizations.
